

SPECIAL ISSUE

HOUSE & GARDEN

JUNE 2003

THE BEST OF NEW YORK!
76 Pages of Decorating & Shopping

U.S. $3.00 CANADA/FOREIGN $4.00

HOUSE & GARDEN

The New York List

A unique blend of art and commerce makes New York the DESIGN CAPITAL OF THE WORLD. It's an exhilarating—and overwhelming—place. To help navigate it, we've put together a list of the city's BEST NEW SHOPPING. We also look for inspiration to RESTAURANT AND HOTEL DESIGN that satisfies all the senses. And, the biggest design trend in the city—INTERIOR DESIGNERS OPEN STOREFRONTS.

PHOTOGRAPHED BY ROBERT WRIGHT AND TED MORRISON
PRODUCED BY MELISSA FELDMAN, SABINE ROTHMAN,
THADDEUS KROMELIS, AND VIRGINIA TUPKER

SOURCE: THE BACK OF BOOKS

The New York List

I

2

1 BAKER TRIBECA 12,000-square-foot store designed by Bill Sofield, featuring furniture available to the public from Baker, McGuire, and Milling Road, along with several other companies. Baker's Pyramid Bookcase, $3,430. 129 Hudson St. 212-343-2956.

2 ENVIRONMENT 337 Galbraith & Paul, Aileen Oster, and David Barthold products can be found alongside a mix of local designers'. In brownstone Brooklyn. 337 Smith St., Brooklyn. 718-522-1767.

3 ROOM ONE Jiri Sornmayura and Filipe Arkadiusz offer a well-selected assortment of modern furniture, lighting, accessories, and personal products in a sliver of a store. 229 Mott St. 212-625-9444.

4 KHAYA The name means "home" in Zulu. Goods from southern Africa, like Sharon Albert's vases, $650 and $600, that break the notion of African art as solely tribal. 250 Elizabeth St. 212-966-8996.

5 ANDRE JOYAU AND SRI André Joyau uses recycled materials to make furniture with a feng shui sensibility, like his Nara Chair, $1,200. Stephen Szczepanek makes rugs, draperies, quilts, and hangings inspired by Asian textiles. By appointment. 20 Van Dam St., Brooklyn. 718-963-2616; 718-599-2559.

EXHIBITION SPACE

KENNY SCHACHTER CONTEMPORARY

Down a cobblestone alley, at the foot of Richard Meier's riverfront condos, Vito Acconci designed an unconventional gallery, below, for the formerly itinerant curator. 14 Charles Lane. 212-807-6669. RED DOT In July, a gallery with affordable fine art gets made over as a young collector's apartment for the semiannual "Living with Art" show. 140 W. 22nd St. 212-675-0461. CURRENT SHOWS:

NATIONAL DESIGN TRIENNIAL Recent highlights. At the Cooper-Hewitt, National Design Museum. April 22 to Jan. 25, 2004. 212-849-8400. ALESSI TEA AND COFFEE SETS A new batch by architects such as Zaha Hadid and Toyo Ito. At Max Protetch, May 1 to June 28. 212-633-6999. 511 W. 22nd St. BROOKLYN DESIGNS Emerging talent from the borough. At St. Ann's Warehouse. June 13-15. 38 Water St. brooklyndesigns.net.

ARCHIPELAGO Finally, the whole fabulous bedding collection in one place with the furniture. 38 Walker St. 212-334-9460. BAC Architect Carlos Aparicio's refined mix of 1930s-1950s furniture with important '30s Scandinavian pieces coming this summer. 16 Crosby St. 212-431-6151. BISAZZA Its art director, Fabio Novembre, designs its first store in the States. Go see the impressive tile installation. 43 Greene St. Bloomingdales Soho Fall 2003, Bloomingdales goes downtown with a 124,000-square-foot retail space. Could Serendipity follow suit? 504 Broadway. >

also see

ARCHIPELAGO Finally, the whole fabulous bedding collection in one place with the furniture. 38 Walker St. 212-334-9460. BAC Architect Carlos Aparicio's refined mix of 1930s-1950s furniture with important '30s Scandinavian pieces coming this summer. 16 Crosby St. 212-431-6151. BISAZZA Its art director, Fabio Novembre, designs its first store in the States. Go see the impressive tile installation. 43 Greene St. BLOOMINGDALES SOHO Fall 2003, Bloomingdales goes downtown with a 124,000-square-foot retail space. Could Serendipity follow suit? 504 Broadway. >

4

3

5

